

Picture this:

You're gearing up for a night of laughter, chatter, and maybe a little friendly competition. The excitement is palpable, but so is the underlying worry – will everything come together just right? Will the snacks delight and the ambiance enchant?

This is where we step in!

It's in these moments of anticipation and nerves that Chakhna Darbar steps in – not as just another snack delivery service, but as your trusted ally in the pursuit of unforgettable celebrations.

Let me share a little secret with you

Behind the scenes at Chakhna Darbar, there's a team of passionate souls who live and breathe the art of hospitality. We're not just in the business of delivering snacks; we're in the business of crafting food experiences through our cloud kitchen services – experiences that warm your heart, give you foodgasms and nourish your soul.

And how do we do that, you ask?

Well, it all starts with a sprinkle of inspiration from the grandeur of royal courts – those storied halls where every detail was meticulously planned to delight and impress. From there, we've curated a selection of treats fit for a royalty like 'yours truly'.

Think about the rich & aromatic Biryani that has the potential to transport you to distant lands.

Moving on to the indulgent Keema Pau that will melt in your mouth.

Also, how can we not talk about our special Nagpuri Saaj Chicken that sets your taste buds ablaze.
